New Voting Equipment Ready for the Public to Demo

(Milford, PA)—Pike County has received its new voting systems. The public is invited to view and test the new equipment in the Elections Office at the Pike County Administration Building, 506 Broad Street, in Milford.

The public can also demo the new equipment at any of the upcoming showcase events. The schedule is as follows:

- April 3, 10:00 am – Commissioners Meeting @ Top of the World in Lehman Township
- April 18, 6:00 – 8:00 pm – Pike County EMS Training Center
- April 24, 6:00 – 8:00 pm – Pike County Administration Building

Other demo events include:

- March 28, 7:00 pm – Pike County Democratic Committee Meeting @ Blooming Grove Fire Department
- April 4, 1:00 pm – St. Vincent's Senior Club @ St. Vincent's Church, Dingmans Ferry
- April 4, 7:00 pm – Pike County Republican Committee Meeting @ Blooming Grove Fire Department
- April 9, 1:00 pm – Hemlock Farms Men's Club @ Fawn Hill Day Camp
- April 27, 2:00 – 4:00 pm – Growing Lackawaxen Tricky Tray @ Lackawaxen Fire House

Visit PikePa.org for the most current list of demo events.

The Pennsylvania Department of State (DOS) is requiring replacement of existing voting systems in Pennsylvania with voter-verifiable paper trail equipment by the April 2020 presidential primary. Pike is one of only a few Pennsylvania counties that will meet the mandate early, during the spring 2019 primary election.
