

HIGH KNOB AREA

The Tarkill Forest Demonstration Area was established in 1948. The area, containing 82 acres north of Pecks Pond, allows for the viewing of proper forest management practices along marked trails. This area is a good example of multiple-use forestry that supports a healthy wildlife population. By protecting and maintaining the Tarkill Creek watershed, this creates recreation for hunters and hikers while supporting a quality stand of timber. - PA DCNR

-  Gate
-  Lookout Tower
-  ATV
-  Delaware State Forest
-  Trail
-  Parking Area
-  Gate Open During Hunt Season
-  Forestry Road (DCNR)
-  Water Fowl Propagation Area
-  Early Succession Forest Cover
-  Deer Exclusion
-  Streams
-  Wetlands
-  Road
-  Boat Access
-  40' Contour Interval
-  PPL Powerline

0 4,800 Feet